

Surveillance and Citizenship:

State-Media-Citizen Relations after the Snowden Leaks

Cardiff University, 18-19 June 2015

Thursday, June 18 th
8:30-9:30	Arrival and registration
9:30-9:45	Welcome and opening: Simon Cottle (Head of School, JOMEC, Cardiff University), Arne Hintz (DCSS project, Cardiff University)
9:45-10:15	Keynote: Ben Wizner (ACLU, Lawyer of Edward Snowden)
10:15-11:15	Plenary 1: State-Media-Citizen Relations in the Surveillance Society Kirstie Ball (Open University), James Ball (The Guardian), Tony Bunyan (Statewatch)
11:15-11:30	Coffee break
11:30-1	Digital Citizenship and Surveillance Society: Project Presentation Chair: Arne Hintz Media Karin Wahl-Jorgensen, Lucy Bennett (Cardiff University) Civil Society Lina Dencik, Jonathan Cable (Cardiff University) Policy Ian Brown, Josh Cowls (Oxford University) Technology Michael Rogers (Technical University Delft), Grace Eden (Cardiff University)	(Anti-)Surveillance Policies and Privacy Protection Chair: Evan Light Illusions of Symmetry? EU Privacy Rights vs US Privacy Rights for EU Citizens Gloria Gonzalez Fuster (Vrije Universiteit Brussels) Meaningless Consent as a Backdoor to Surveillance Morana Miljanovic (Hertie School of Governance) Social Media User's Awareness of Privacy Policies and Privacy Laws Katherine Sarikakis, Lisa Winter (University of Vienna) The Link Between Inequality and Domestic Surveillance Sarah Harney (Carleton University): Turning the Lens Inward	Information Security for Journalists and Activists Workshop by Arjen Kamphuis (Centre for Investigative Journalism)
1:00-2:00	Lunch

2:00-3:30	Journalism and Media Representation Chair: Karin Wahl-Jorgensen Journalism After Snowden Jennifer R. Henrichsen (Reporters Committee for Freedom of the Press) Post-Snowden Surveillance Journalism in Scandinavia Christel Backman, Erica Johnson (Linkoping University), Ann Rudinow Saetnan, Gunhild Toendel (Norwegian Institute for Science and Technology), Ola Svenonius (Soedertoern University), Susanne Wigorts Yngvesson (Stockholm School of Theology) 'Not Interesting Enough to be Followed by the NSA': A Frame Analysis of the Dutch Public Debate About the NSA Revelations in 2013 Anouk Mols (Erasmus University Rotterdam) Resetting the Agenda? NSA Coverage in Traditional and New Online Media Mario Haim (Ludwig-Maximilians-University Munich) Behind the Lines: Press Freedom and the Security State Justin Schlosberg (Birkbeck College), Edmund J. Safra (Harvard University)	Global Perspectives on Surveillance, Security and Communication Policy Chair: Ian Brown Canada post-Snowden: Canadian Surveillance and the C-51 Anti-Terrorism Act Andrew Clement (University of Toronto) Data Retention & National Security: The Australian Debate in a Global Context David Lindsay (Monash University) The Price of the Club: Surveillance, Security and Contested Citizenship in Contemporary New Zealand Kathleen Kuehn (Victoria University Wellington) Snowden Era Challenges: The Story of Surveillance in Pakistan Shahzad Ahmad, Furhan Hussain (Bytes for All) Public Perception of Online Surveillance and Censorship in Pakistan Arzak Khan (Internet Policy Observatory Pakistan), Laura Schwarz-Henderson (University of Pennsylvania)	Creating Usable and Secure Software Chair: Michael Rogers Roundtable discussion with: Dave Hrycyszyn (Head London) Lola Oyelalo (Head London) George Danezis (UCL) Blaine Cook (Poetica.com)
3:30-4	Coffee break
4-5:30	The PRISM of NSA: Security, Privacy and Journalism in the Global Debate on the Snowden Affair Chair: Risto Kunelius	Digital Rights, Activism and Advocacy Chair: Lina Dencik Perspectives on the Relative Importance of the Snowden Leaks from Human Rights Defenders and	Technology for Secure Communication and Counter-surveillance: Lightning Talks Chair: Michael Rogers

	The Prism of NSA. Security, privacy and journalism in the global debate on the Snowden affair Risto Kunelius & Heikki Heikkilä (University of Tampere) Covering the Snowden revelations: hybrid news environments and expanding spheres of legitimate debate Adrienne Russell (University of Denver) Anonymous politicians and autonomous journalism? A discussion of journalist ideals as revealed by the “Snowden affair” Elisabeth Eide (Olso & Akerhus University College) Politicizing media technologies? Framing ‘technology’ within the German NSA case press coverage Anne Mollen and Johanna Möller (University of Bremen) The role and strategy of media diplomacy in the Snowden event: An empirical research based on four newspapers in China Haiyan Wang & Ruolin Fang (School of Communication and Design, Sun Yat-Sen University, China)	Activists outside the US and Europe Becky Kazansky (Tactical Tech) Ethics and Rights in Cybersecurity: New sociopolitical formations and their influence Athina Karatzogianni (University of Leicester) Off the Radar: Understanding Privacy, Activism and Threat in Civil Society and the State Lee Salter (Sussex University) and Einar Thorsen (Bournemouth University) Framing Resistance Against Surveillance – Political Communication of Privacy Advocacy Groups in the ‘Stop Watching Us’- and ‘The Day We Fight Back’- Campaigns Till Waescher (Technical University Dortmund) From lessons of love to crypto wars: Contemporary dissent to state surveillance Patricia de Vries (Institute of Network Cultures, Amsterdam University of Applied Sciences)	Presentations of projects, tools and platforms, including: LEAP, Pixelated, Briar, IXmaps, SurveillanceWatch, and others
5:30-6:30	The Politics of Investigating the Innocent Workshop by Gavin MacFadyen (Centre for Investigative Journalism)	Snowden Files For All? Workshop with Morana Miljanovic (Hertie School of Governance) and Andrew Clement (University of Toronto)	Fighting Mass Surveillance in Europe and Beyond: the EU Passenger Name Record (PNR) Directive Workshop by Estelle Masse (Access)

Friday, June 19 th
9:30-10	Code Red Annie Machon (MI5 whistleblower)
10-11	Plenary 2: Policy, Technology, and the User in the Surveillance Society Mark Andrejevic (Ponoma College), Gus Hosein (Privacy International), Seda Gürses (New York University)
11-11:30	Coffee Break
11:30-1	Dimensions of Digital Citizenship: Concepts and Challenges Chair: Arne Hintz Debating and Assessing Transparency Arrangements: Privacy, Security, Surveillance, Trust: Evaluating Perspectives on Surveillance in the Post-Snowden Leak Era Vian Bakir, Andrew McStay (Bangor University) Jus Algoritmi: How the NSA Remade Citizenship John Cheney-Lippold (University of Michigan) The Privacy Parenthesis: Citizenship in Late Capitalism and the Digital World Leighton Evans (Maynooth University) The EULA-fication of the Social World Bryan Sacks (Rutgers University)	Strategies for Change and the Politics of Digital Rights Chair: Lina Dencik Telecoms are not our enemies and other post-capital fairytales: New strategies for activism and analysis Evan Light (Concordia University) The Process of Dividuation and the Nebula of Anonymity Oliver Leistert (University of Paderborn) Revisiting Transparency Reports as a Tool for Transparency and Accountability Eleni Kosta (Tilburg University) Surveillance Aesthetics: The Politics of Televisualizing Urban Data Anne Kustritz (University of Amsterdam) Fear ART: If we call activism by any other name, is it still art? Freyja Vandenoorn (KU Leuven)	Reforming Surveillance Policy after the UK General Election Workshop with Gus Hosein (Privacy International), Ed Paton-Williams (Open Rights Group), Chris Marsden (Sussex University), Ian Brown (Oxford University)
1-2	Lunch
2-3:30	Public Attitudes, Perception and Everyday Surveillance Chair: Jonathan Cable	Exploring Intersections: Surveillance between Technology, Policy and Politics Chair: Grace Eden	Disrupting the Surveillance Ecosystem Workshop on anti-surveillance activism by Estelle Masse (Access), with Becky Kazansky (Tactical Tech), Ed

	The Importance of the Sociopolitical Context and Ideology in Explaining Citizens' Attitudes Towards Digital Surveillance and Citizenship Dimitris Tsapogas (University of Vienna) Do We Really Care? Trust, Democracy and Attitudes Towards Sharing Personal Data and Online Surveillance in Cross National Perspective Anja Franczak (Polish Academy of Sciences) Exploring Subjective Experience of Everyday Surveillance: The Case of Smartphone Devices as Means of Facilitating 'Seductive' Surveillance Pinelopi Troullinou (Open University) Militarization, Surveillance and Everyday Life: How the 'War on Terror' and Digital Media are Redefining Democracy Victoria Bernal (University of California) Structural Surveillance: Its History, Means and Effects Jeffrey L. Vagle (University of Pennsylvania)	Techno-Politics as Network(ed) Struggles Laura Fichtner (University of Twente): Scientia est Potentia Examining OSINT: A Positive Vision for Government Surveillance Matthew Edwards (Lancaster University) Safety over Liberty: CALEA, Net Neutrality and the FCC's Double-Standard for U.S. Broadband Reclassification Christopher Terry (UW-Milwaukee) Legislational and Technological Options for a Democracy-Preserving Internet Carlo von Lynx (gnunet.org) Mass Surveillance and the Lost Art of Keeping a Secret Theo Tryfonas (University of Bristol), Tom Crick (Cardiff Metropolitan University)	Paton-Williams (Open Rights Group) and others.
3:30-4:30	Investigating Surveillance: The German Parliamentary Inquiry on the Work of Security Agencies Anne Roth (Parliamentary Inquiry on Mass Surveillance at the German Bundestag)	Digital Footprint Analysis: A Data Privacy Workshop Kathleen Kuehn (Victoria University of Wellington)	Implementing the International Principles on the Application of Human Rights to Communications Surveillance Workshop with Estelle Masse (Access) and others
4:30-5	Closing Plenary: What next for digital citizenship and surveillance?

Throughout the 2 days of the conference: "HUSH" – Usability and Security Hackathon